

London City Exams

for Young Learners

Go

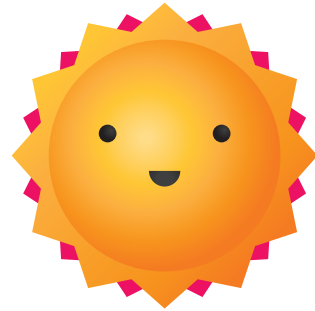

Speaking

In this speaking test, you will:

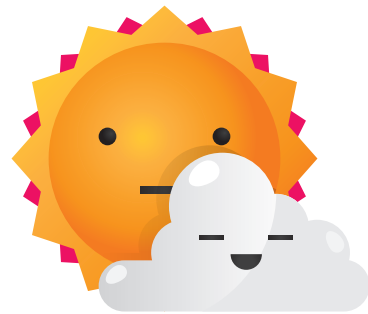

- introduce yourself.
- look, think and discuss.
- put pictures in the correct order and tell a short story.
- look, choose and answer.

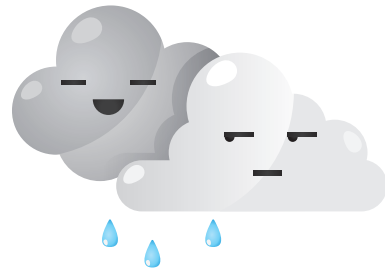

1

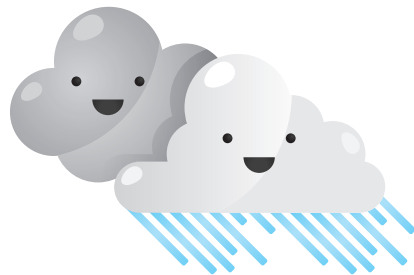

2

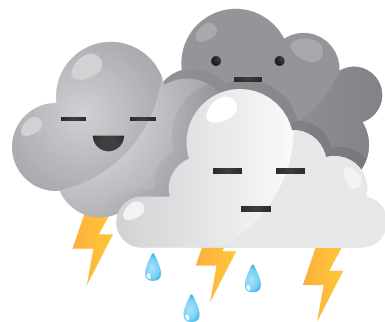

3

4

5

Good morning / afternoon / evening.

How are you? Show me! (Point to page 2 and show students what to do.)

Introduction

My name is ...

What's your name?

How old are you?

Where do you live?

Do you like English? Why / Why not?

Back-up questions

My name is My surname is

Are you 11?

Do you live in ...?

Part 1

Look at these pictures of different holidays.

Joe wants to go on holiday with his parents.

Think about which holiday he could go on and say why.

Talk about all the pictures.

Back-up questions

Do you think Joe likes cold or hot weather?

Do you think he likes skiing/camping? What else can he do here?

Do you think he wants a holiday on the beach? What can he do by the sea?

Do you think he wants to be in the city? What can he see in the city? Museums? Shops?

Part 2

Look at these pictures.

Put them in the correct order and tell the short story.

Then answer the question:

How do you think the family is feeling?

Back-up questions

What is the woman doing here? Where is she?

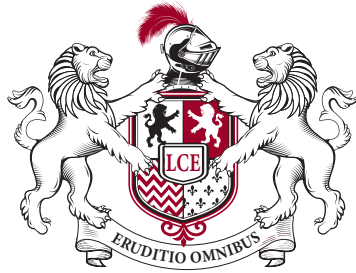

Is she at the supermarket? What is she doing in the kitchen? What is in the bowl? What is she making? What are they doing here?

Part 3

Look, choose and answer. (Students choose 2 cards.)

Ending the test

Show the faces at the end of the test and say: How are you feeling now?

London City Exams for Young Learners

Go

Thank you (name)!

How are you feeling now?

Goodbye (name)!